

Login Sign-up

THE HOME OF NAVIGATION
PAST, PRESENT & FUTURE

HOME | ABOUT US | JOIN | GROUPS | REFERENCES | EVENTS | COMPS | SHOP | MEMBERS

Introduction

Animal Navigation Group

Civil Aviation Group

General Aviation Navigation Group

History of AirNav Group

Land Vehicle Navigation Group

Marine Traffic & Navigation Group

Navigation on Foot Group

Satellite Navigation Group

About the Group News

Forthcoming Events Past Events

Small Craft Group

Forums

Boscombe Down

Poole & Dorset

Solent

Scottish

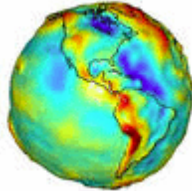

West Country

IAIN

EUGIN

Most accurate Earth gravity map issued

Release date: 24 Jul 2003

On 21 July the joint NASA-German Aerospace Center Gravity Recovery and Climate Experiment (GRACE) mission released its first science product, the most accurate map yet of Earth's gravity field. GRACE is the newest tool for scientists working to unlock secrets of ocean circulation and its effects on climate.

Full details from www.csr.utexas.edu/grace.

Email to author

reference: <http://www.csr.utexas.edu/grace>

Article Id: 67297
Release date: 24 Jul 2003

Copyright Royal Institute of Navigation 2003

SEARCH